We have been happy to serve the teams with an outstanding line of Basketball Equipment. Now we enjoy your serving us with outstanding basketball. Best of luck to the teams and a happy stay in Prince Rupert.

TOM MASICH, Manager
JOHN OLSEN
The final game was broadcast over CFPR and it is hoped that this year’s final game will be broadcast again.

Team line-ups may be found throughout this programme.

In the centerfold of the book will be found a copy of the Tournament draw which fans are asked to use to keep up with the standings. The draw is quite simple to follow and the master plan in the main lobby will keep you up to date should you get behind.

Two dances will be held this year, one on Friday night and one on Saturday night. These dances will commence right after the conclusion of the night’s activities in the gym.

Mr. Tom Masich of Jaffary’s Sports and Trophies is donating a basketball to be used during the tournament. This basketball will be presented to the winning Senior Team following the finals.

This year’s tournament will be bigger and better than last year’s. Tell all your friends about it.

Mayor P. J. Lester and Mr. A. E. Anfield, Indian Superintendent for B.C., together with Mr. R. H. Sampson of the local Indian Office, will officiate in opening and closing the tourney with speeches and presentations.

We hope you will all support this Tournament by purchasing a ticket on our raffle car.

Good luck to all teams.

Comets. In the exhibition game, Rainmakers beat Thunderbirds 67-21. The other game of the first day saw Kitkatla KEC smother the Aces 86-32.

Action continued on Thursday, March 3rd. A hustling Greenville gang lost out to Port Simpson YPEA 60-45. The other Port Simpson Senior team, the AC's, eked out a 41-37 win over the Miller Bay Vikings. In the final game of the night, the Athletic Club from Port Simpson lost to the tough Kitkatla KEC 70-46.

Scores of other games were Miller Bay 86, Kitkatla Aces 41; Rainmakers 46, Aiyansh 29; Kitimaat 93, Thunderbirds 41; Port Simpson AC's 41, Metlakatla 35; Rupert Royals 43, Manson's 30.

By Friday, the picture appeared quite clear as to what teams would be in the finals. Kitimaat and Kitkatla KEC were favoured in the Senior Section, while Port Simpson AC and Metlakatla looked pretty close in the Intermediate section.

Aiyansh eliminated the Port Simpson Senior AC's. Port Simpson YPEA knocked off the Thunderbirds. Kitkatla KEC beat Kitimaat 57-45 and earned the right in the finals.

This meant that Kitimaat had to go to the losers section and fight back to meet Kitkatla again. This they did and the Senior final turned out to be the most exciting game of the Tournament. Kitkatla, after being 10 points behind at one time, scored an amazing 27 points in the final quarter and edged Kitimat 61-57 before more than 700 screaming fans.

In the Intermediate section, which was a round-robin type tourney, Port Simpson AC's were crowned champions by virtue of their 56-44 win over Rupert Royals.

At the conclusion of play on Saturday night, trophies were handed out by Frank Calder and Wink Willox. The Most Valuable Players were Crosby Smith of Kitimaat and Jackie White of Port Simpson. The Most Sportsmanlike Team trophy went to the Miller Bay Vikings. Senior All Stars were Rod Bolton and Crosby Smith of Kitimaat, Don Brown and Elmer Ridley of Kitkatla, and Art Helin of Miller Bay Vikings.

Intermediate All Stars were Jackie White and Frank Swanson of Port Simpson, Steve Johnson of Aiyansh, Clarence Nelson of Metlakatla and Jerry Jeffery of Manson's.

Wink Willox was presented with a silver cigarette box, suitably engraved, in appreciation for his attendance and invaluable help during the tournament.

Let's Have a Look at Last Year

by Len Harrington

Last year's attempt at reviving the Tournament proved most successful for both the Natives and the Basketball Association.

Held at the Civic Centre on March 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th, some 15 teams entered from neighbouring villages and various organizations.

The 10 Senior Clubs were Kitimaat, Rupert Thunderbirds, Greenville, Port Simpson YPEA, Port Simpson Athletic Club, Kitkatla KEC, Kitkatla Aces, Aiyansh, Miller Bay Vikings and Hartley Bay.

Due to a death in the village, Hartley Bay had to withdraw at the last moment. The High School Rainmakers filled in for Hartley Bay, whose games were defaulted to their opponents.

The Intermediate teams were Manson’s Tom-Tom Five, Rupert Royals, Metlakatla, Port Simpson and Aiyansh.

Officiating at the opening ceremonies were Frank Calder, MLA, and Dr. R. G. Large, who represented the City of Prince Rupert.

Wink Willox, Educational Director for the B.C. Basketball Referee’s Association, attended as a guest. Mr. Willox put on a display for the fans on various aspects of rule infractions. He also took the odd turn at refereeing.

Sharply at 9:00 a.m. on March 2nd, the first game of the 1960 series got underway as Miller Bay Vikings beat Port Simpson YPEA 76-53. The following game saw Aiyansh Comets edge Rupert Royals in a thriller. The final score was 37-36.

In other games that day, Kitimaat won out over Aiyansh Y’s 72-64 in a game that was action packed throughout. Manson’s Tom-Tom five took Metlakatla 38-30. Jackie White fired home 22 points to lead Port Simpson AC’s to a resounding 63-29 win over Aiyansh.

In the early rounds of the 1951 tournament.

Port Simpson, however, lost in the finals as a strong Kitkatla contingent snatched the championship in an exciting 46-41 victory to gain the new B.C. Packer Trophy; (Kitimaat retained the old trophy as they won the series three years in a row).

Wyler Innes of Kitkatla won the Most Valuable Player trophy and a gold medal. Silver Medals were presented annually to members of winning teams each year after 1950.

The smallest crowd in the history of the tourney was on hand to see the thrilling 1951 games. Cold weather and high winds prevented the outlying coastal villages from making the trek. Another factor preventing greater attendance at the games was poor accommodations for both teams and spectators.

Interest in the tourneys slowly began to wane as in 1952, the tournament, to be held in Port Simpson, was called off when entries were so few in number it didn’t constitute enough teams to make the effort worthwhile.

A final attempt to hold the tournament was made in April of 1953. Only four teams attended. After many tries, Port Simpson finally gained the B.C. Packer Trophy with a 51-40 win over Kitkatla. Vernon Dudoward, who netted 32 points during the game, was Most Valuable Player.

No real effort to hold the contests was made until last year.

All Native Basketball

by Ken Specht

Even prior to 1947, basketball had long been a serious sporting endeavor among the coastal Indian villages, but no formal attempt had been made to decide the most formidable array of talent despite the fact that innumerable local jousts were held. In 1947, the Prince Rupert Basketball Association decided to hold the first Northern British Columbia Tournament.

On March 12, some 400 spectators and seven All Native teams trooped to the Roosevelt Gym and displayed such sportsmanship during the highly successful tourney that it was decided to hold the meetings annually.

The three day agenda that year saw Kincolith emerge from the Tournament after a decisive 55-40 victory over Aiyansh to win the B.C. Packer Trophy.

The Most Valuable Player award, presented by 99 Taxi, was given to David Doolan for his good sportsmanship and basketball ability.

The next three consecutive annual All-Native Basketball Tournaments, played at the Civic Centre, were dominated by a powerful Kitimaat village contingent who outplayed and outscored all opposition they met.

Perhaps one of the greatest stars to emerge from the three year Kitimaat domination was Chris Wilson of the victors who won the Bill Scuby Most Valuable Player Trophy three straight years.

Wilson, Kitimaat's lanky centre, always delighted the fans as he consistently garnered 20 or 30 points per game.

In 1950, the competitions were handled and organized by a Native Basketball Association committee.

During Kitimaat's reign, the smelter city village gained their last two titles by virtue of wins over Port Simpson by scores of 65-35 and 53-30.

The Port Simpson Athletic Club gained their revenge by elim-

Message from the Indian Commissioner for B.C.

It is good to know that the Prince Rupert Basketball Association is associated with this, the second All Native Basketball Tournament and I am deeply appreciative of the honour conveyed in your invitation to “come back home” to Prince Rupert and present Trophies to the winning contestants.

Basketball is essentially Prince Rupert’s winter sport; it is also our native peoples’ chief athletic endeavour, and the opportunity of an All Native Tournament is worthy of support by everyone in the Indian Villages and throughout the City and District. I am glad that this friendly rivalry among the large Indian Bands is being fostered and maintained; and the Prince Rupert Basketball Association is to be congratulated on its continued interest in our native folk, many of whom have played and excelled in your City Leagues for many years.

Pressure of other responsibilities will only permit me to be with you all for the final day of the Tournament, but I do want to wish each and every team the very best of luck — the true victory of games well played, win, lose, or draw.

Yours for a great Tournament

Indian Commissioner for B.C.
